Coaches Meeting

Thursday August 26th 630pm, at the Central Branch. This is a one hour mandatory meeting to inform coaches and /or assistants on YMCA philosophy, administrative procedures, and general rule information. Roster distribution, uniform request and your team name will also take place at this meeting.

Parents Join our Team

A major part of the YMCA's program is the use of volunteer parents as coaches. For this program to be successful your help is needed. Consider this opportunity to spend an enjoyable season as a volunteer coach. We cannot finalize a team without you as their coach.

Program Goals

Our youth sports program goals provide a unique atmosphere and approach that helps develop good sportsmanship among participants. Each child is also guaranteed playing time in every game. This allows for growth of self-confidence, spirit, and skill level.

Coaching Information

Returning coaches are asked to contact last year's team members to determine returning players. All coaches must take any returning players from last Falls team who register during the regular sign-up period. If a player chooses not to play on the same team, the coach may fill that vacancy. The YMCA will assist in filling out team rosters. If you are planning to bring your team from our spring or summer season, another organization, or form a new team please contact the YMCA of Arlington Sports Department.
